Jack and Sizwe have been friends since Grade 1. They are both currently in Grade 6. In Grade 6, the school which they attend choose whom they want to become prefects in Grade 7. Sizwe was elected as a leader but not Jack. Sizwe noticed that Jack had bruises on his arms a day after the leaders' election. He did not think much of it, because boys often play roughly with one another.

That day, Sizwe went home with Jack to work on a task. Jack went to his father's study to tell his father that they were going to work on a task. Sizwe heard shouting, then moaning which then became crying. Sizwe immediately ran to the study to see what was going. There he saw Jack lying on the floor with his father towering over him, with a clenched fist.
